Again, we must express our appreciation to Mr. Warner and his typing classes for their assistance in typing and running off the Ridge Rambler. Also, a note of thanks must be expressed to Mrs. Gonyou and her art classes for their cartoon contributions, and to Mr. Pelton and his English classes for their much appreciated contributions.

Editorial - In My Opinion

First I must briefly explain the symbolism involved in the cover of this month's Ridge Rambler. The annual MRSS Exposition is held in order to illustrate the many and varied facets of school life. Our cover has attempted to represent only a small portion of the Ridge population. Teachers, athletes, socialites, administrators and academic and school spirited people are few among a school body such as Ridge possesses. Just as a society takes "all kinds", so a student body requires people of innumerable and varied interests and ambitions. Fortunately Ridge may boast an abundant quantity of these different types. MRSS is a school in which one may feel a great pride. We have more than our share of scholars, athletes, actors, teachers, public speakers, writers, organisers and well intentioned workers, and this is to name just a few. Few students will realize the terrific advantages offered at school until they have either "quit" or graduated. And then it is too late. Likewise, students tend to take our Exposition for granted. This annual event is intended to be for the students and by the students. It is a time when students may look back on achievements, through displays, and see the good educations which has been offered to them. In short, the Exposition represents our school life. Enjoy it now, take advantage of it before it is too late!!!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I, and many of my friends are rather dissatisfied with the manner in which the Social was handled a few weeks ago. It did go through the council who agreed to have one, but from there the matter was left entirely out of their hands. We, (the council) were not called together to vote upon the band, the cost, or theme; or at least to
